

Kevin Cruz Carcamo

University Student

I am seeking a position that allows me to develop my skills and learn new things to enhance my professional career.

I have been passionate about programming since I was 16 years old. I began my learning journey in network security, and my current focus is on software development. My goal is to create innovative and secure software. Additionally, I have knowledge in Graphic Design, Sales, and Marketing, which has allowed me to expand into multiple areas.
